Sanitariums and Health Resorts

A registry for those seeking treatment for various ailments, containing information regarding climatic conditions, natural resources, elevation and class of cases treated at our best American institutions. Working along the most scientific lines, the interests and comforts of patients are safeguarded under the most approved methods and sanitary conditions.

Booklets or circulars of the following sanitariums may be obtained by calling, writing or telephoning to The New-York Tribune Information Bureau, 320 Tribune Building, New York City. Telephone 3000 Beekman.

DR. VAIL'S SANATORIUM

ENFIELD, Thompsonville P. O., CONN.

Situated in the beautiful old New England town of Enfield, Ct., on the Connecticut River, with its wide elm-shaded streets and extended views of the Connecticut Valley.

The town is situated on the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., a direct route between New York and Boston, and between the cities of Hartford and Springfield.

The Sanatorium has been in successful operation for twenty-four years, making a specialty of nervous diseases. One hundred acres of shady lawns, orchards, meadow and woodland surround the buildings, making it an ideal resting place for nervous invalids who demand beauty of surroundings as well as quiet and retirement. For particulars and booklet address
